

WHAT'S IN A NAME?

When the Holy Roman Emperor visited Brussels in 1549, locals lined up around the city walls and joined in a celebration as his entourage passed by. That parade became known as the “Ommegang,” a word that variously means “coming together” and “walking about.”

HISTORY

Belgian breweries Duvel Moortgat, Affligem, and Scaldis joined with importers Don Feinberg and Wendy Littlefield to build an authentic Belgian-style farmstead brewery in Cooperstown, NY on an old 140-acre hop farm in the Susquehanna River valley. Duvel Moortgat gained sole ownership in 2003.
